

The Moments of Rest Project

Under the ongoing 'Moments of Rest Project' Karly offers workshops that provide a dedicated space to step outside of the rush & pressure of life to reflect & express creatively. These workshops are designed to suit people with any creative inclination (or not) as they do not rely on artistic skill but are about process and engagement.

Karly offers open workshops at different places but can also adjust workshops to suit different venues, businesses & specific small groups, such as churches.
